

HAZRAT SULTAN MAHMOODULLAH SHAH HUSSAINI
(R.Z.)

“SHAH JI “

Hazrath Syed Sultan Mahmoodullah Shah Hussaini (died 1894 A.D.) also known as “Shah ji” was a renowned Muslim Sufi, saint and scholar of the Quadri, Chisti order from Indian sub continent. He was the native of Karnool . His most famous disciple and spiritual successor was Hazrath Machiliwale Shah, who in turn became the spiritual master of India's noted Sufi saint.

Life

Syed Sultan Mahmoodullah Shah Hussaini spiritual guide (shaikh) was Shaikh Hazrath Syed Burhanuddin Haqqani Haqnuma. A renowned scholar of the time, his miraculous personality imparted immense knowledge, awarded khilafath and ordered him to go to Hyderabad for the propagation of Oneness of God. He stayed in Secunderabad and Hyderabad. Many scholars of twin cities learned the intricacies of Tauheed and Tasawwuf from him. He initiated Hazrath Shah Kamalullah, popularly known as Machiliwale Shah in tasawwuf and made him successor (Janasheen).

Death

He died on 6th Zilhajja, 1311 H corresponding to 1894 AD. His grave (mazar) is situated in Takia Munnamiya, beside Osmania General Hospital, Afzalgunj, Hyderabad. [[]

Urs

His annual Urs is organized by his present successor Moulana Ghousavi Shah (Secretary General: The Conference of World Religions & President: All India Muslim Conference) on 29th Rabi-us-sani every year.